

Our Story

Talk about it?

For younger children

Draw your story. Use the mailbox to share your story with your mother.

For older children

Using the comic strip, illustrate or describe your story. Use the mailbox to share your story with your mother. You can also leave some boxes empty for her to complete the story.

For women

Using the comic strip, illustrate or describe your story. Use the mailbox to share your story with your child. You can also leave empty boxes for her or him to complete your story.

For mother and child

Take turns illustrating or describing a portion of your story, using a different color within the comic strip for each of you.

